

Eagle Plain

By Robert Francis

The American eagle is not aware he is the American eagle. He is never tempted to look modest.

When orators advertise the American eagle's virtues, the American eagle is not listening.
This is his virtue.

He is somewhere else, he is mountains away
but even if he were near he would never make an audience.

The American eagle never says he will serve if drafted, will dutifully serve etc. He is not at our service.

If we have honored him we have honored one who unequivocally honors himself by overlooking us.

He does not know the meaning of magnificent.
Perhaps we do not altogether either
who cannot touch him.
