I look at the world

By Langston Hughes

I look at the world
   From awakening eyes in a black face—
   And this is what I see:
   This fenced-off narrow space
   Assigned to me.

I look then at the silly walls
   Through dark eyes in a dark face—
   And this is what I know:
   That all these walls oppression builds
   Will have to go!

I look at my own body
   With eyes no longer blind—
   And I see that my own hands can make
   The world that’s in my mind.
   Then let us hurry, comrades,
   The road to find.
