Sci-Fi

By Tracy K. Smith

There will be no edges, but curves. Clean lines pointing only forward.

History, with its hard spine & dog-eared Corners, will be replaced with nuance,

Just like the dinosaurs gave way To mounds and mounds of ice.

Women will still be women, but The distinction will be empty. Sex,

Having outlived every threat, will gratify
Only the mind, which is where it will exist.

For kicks, we'll dance for ourselves Before mirrors studded with golden bulbs.

The oldest among us will recognize that glow— But the word sun will have been re-assigned

To the Standard Uranium-Neutralizing device Found in households and nursing homes.

And yes, we'll live to be much older, thanks To popular consensus. Weightless, unhinged,

Eons from even our own moon, we'll drift In the haze of space, which will be, once

And for all, scrutable and safe.
