

Tasting Braille

By Kathi Wolfe

People can ... read Braille with their lips and their tongue ...

— David J. Linden, The Kojo Nnamdi Show

Whitman is a foot-long sub
of grass-fed beef,
Falstaff, a fat onion ring,
Ophelia, a wailing wine.
Judas Iscariot's kiss turns my lips against themselves.
Emily D makes my tongue
want to fly a kite.
The tongues of angels,
I cannot swallow.

Source: Poetry (February 2016)