POETRY OUT LOUD

By Wendy Xu

Distrust this season breeds in me whole blue worlds, am second to leafy nouns, pinned back darkening lip of the night, untrustworthy sidewalk glazed and sleeping there, peachy trees, a line drawn from one brow of a star down and planted, each pillow little shimmer, little wilt startled from out the arranging field moonlit pale behind no foxes, in me finding the fragrant new crisis, not dead still where I love you in feast and pledge, worlds rolling first on crookedly and on.
