In a dream I returned to the river of bees
  Five orange trees by the bridge and
Beside two mills my house
  Into whose courtyard a blindman followed
The goats and stood singing
  Of what was older

Soon it will be fifteen years

He was old he will have fallen into his eyes

I took my eyes
  A long way to the calendars
Room after room asking how shall I live

One of the ends is made of streets
  One man processions carry through it
Empty bottles their
  Image of hope
It was offered to me by name

Once once and once
  In the same city I was born
Asking what shall I say

He will have fallen into his mouth
  Men think they are better than grass

I return to his voice rising like a forkful of hay

He was old he is not real nothing is real
  Nor the noise of death drawing water

We are the echo of the future

On the door it says what to do to survive
  But we were not born to survive
Only to live
