TWINKLE, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!
Up above the world so high,
Like a diamond in the sky.

When the blazing sun is gone,
When he nothing shines upon,
Then you show your little light,
Twinkle, twinkle, all the night.

Then the trav’ller in the dark,
Thanks you for your tiny spark,
He could not see which way to go,
If you did not twinkle so.

In the dark blue sky you keep,
And often thro’ my curtains peep,
For you never shut your eye,
Till the sun is in the sky.

’Tis your bright and tiny spark,
Lights the trav’ller in the dark:
Tho’ I know not what you are,
Twinkle, twinkle, little star.

Notes:
Note to Poetry Out Loud participants: In introducing “The Star,” contestant may say “The Star’ by Anne Taylor and Jane Taylor” or “The Star’ by Anne Taylor, Jane Taylor.” Adding the word “and” between the authors’ names will not affect the accuracy score.
