Valentine

By Elinor Wylie

Too high, too high to pluck
   My heart shall swing.
A fruit no bee shall suck,
   No wasp shall sting.

If on some night of cold
   It falls to ground
In apple-leaves of gold
   I’ll wrap it round.

And I shall seal it up
   With spice and salt,
In a carven silver cup,
   In a deep vault.

Before my eyes are blind
   And my lips mute,
I must eat core and rind
   Of that same fruit.

Before my heart is dust
   At the end of all,
Eat it I must, I must
   Were it bitter gall.

But I shall keep it sweet
   By some strange art;
Wild honey I shall eat
   When I eat my heart.

O honey cool and chaste
   As clover’s breath!
Sweet Heaven I shall taste
   Before my death.
