

won't you celebrate with me

By Lucille Clifton

what i have shaped into a kind of life? i had no model.
born in babylon
both nonwhite and woman what did i see to be except myself? i made it up here on this bridge between starshine and clay, my one hand holding tight my other hand; come celebrate with me that everyday something has tried to kill me and has failed.
