

Dana Gioia

It seems almost a requirement for a poet to have an unconventional résumé, but Dana Gioia's is perhaps notable for being so conventionally unpoetic. A graduate of Stanford Business School, Gioia claims to be "the only person, in history, who went to business school to be a poet." He later rose to become a vice president at General Foods. He served as chairperson of the National Endowment for the Arts from 2003 to 2008 and is the Judge Widney Professor of Poetry and Public Culture at the University of Southern California. In 2015, Gioia was named Poet Laureate of California. Although Gioia writes in free verse, he is known primarily for his formal work, and has been included in the school of New Formalism, a movement in the 1990s by American poets to bring traditional verse forms back to the fore.
