

Sara Teasdale

Sara Teasdale was born in St. Louis, Missouri. She won fame in her day as a sensitive soul whose simple, poignant poems addressed beauty and loss. Teasdale's Love Songs received the first Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1918.