

Poetry Out Loud Branding Guide

Introduction

The National Endowment for the Arts and Poetry Foundation seek to achieve unified visual branding for Poetry Out Loud™ through the proper application of the logo and crediting language. Visual branding refers to use of the logo to identify organizations and the activities directly related to this national program.

This Branding Guide should be used to help ensure that the Poetry Out Loud partners, schools, state arts agencies, contractors, marketing department, graphic designers, and other relevant stakeholders creating authorized marketing materials for Poetry Out Loud review, understand, and adhere to the content in this Branding Guide. The examples provided below are intended as an overview and not an exhaustive listing of print and digital opportunities available to your organization.

Logos

There are several variations of the Poetry Out Loud logo available for use by state arts agencies, as well as participating schools. The preferred logo for use is:

A partnership of
National Endowment for the Arts and Poetry Foundation

(Please note, color versions are available for use as well)

In instances where the text about the National Endowment for the Arts and Poetry Foundation is used at a size where it is unreadable, or the framing copy “National Endowment for the Arts and Poetry Foundation Present” is best used in a different orientation, you are permitted to use this version (or the color versions of these):

When placing the logo on a color other than white, make sure the area is solid and free of distracting elements and color variations that may interfere with the logo's readability.

In addition to the Poetry Out Loud logo, materials may also include the National Endowment for the Arts and Poetry Foundation logos. The Poetry Foundation color logo must only appear on a plain white background; the white logo may be used on a color background.

To download the logos, visit <https://www.poetryoutloud.org/teachers-organizers/download-logos-and-graphics/>. A login is not required to access the logo art.

Treatment of logo

Always maintain a graphics-free zone around the perimeter of the logo. This space is equal to or greater than one half of the logo's width.

Use caution when enlarging it to maintain good resolution, and when reducing the logo to maintain readability.

Placement of logo

The Poetry Out Loud logo should be positioned prominently for high visibility and readability, distinct from other visual elements. The logo should be separate and distinct than any other contributor.

Improper use of logos

- Don't crop the logo.
- Don't separate elements of the logo to reorganize format or appearance.
- Don't rotate the logo.
- Don't distort the logo horizontally or vertically.
- Don't alter the colors. (You may make the background transparent if needed.)
- Don't alter the typography of the logo.
